

BREAKFAST ON THE MOUNTAIN

"We can do it . . . again!"

Steve Nichols

The Nichols Family donated the land where the Tram's Valley Station and parking lots now sit. As well, they were early advocates of the project.

James Landells

James is the author of "We Can Do It!"— a book about the Tramway's construction and the role his family played. Landells Aviation made over 23,000 helicopter trips during the Tram's construction.

Joey English

KGX Radio personality and event moderator
